1. Continuation of Special Purpose Vehicle (SPV)

Special Purpose Vehicles (SPVs), continued in the DIFC as Prescribed Companies, are passive holding companies designed to ring-fence and isolate assets and liabilities. Their primary purpose is to mitigate financial and legal risk by separating specific assets or transactions from the wider activities of a corporate group or individual shareholder.

SPVs are commonly used for asset holding, investment structuring, and risk management purposes. A DIFC SPV offers several key advantages:

- Asset protection and risk ring-fencing: SPVs enable the segregation of assets and liabilities, providing protection against financial and legal exposure arising from unrelated activities.
- Cost-effective structure: SPVs are economical to establish and maintain, with re-domiciliation fees starting from USD 2,000.
- Fast and straightforward setup: the registration process is simple and efficient, allowing for quick establishment.
- Open regime: the SPV regime is open to any applicant with no nexus requirements, subject to compliance with the Prescribed Company Regulations and applicable DIFC laws.

1.1 Appointment of a Corporate Service Provider

To continue an SPV as Prescribed Company in the DIFC, an entity is required to appoint a DIFC-licensed Corporate Service Provider (CSP). The CSP acts as the PC's primary administrative and compliance interface with the DIFC Registrar of Companies. For the list of DIFC License Corporate Services Providers, please click here.

This requirement applies from registration and on a continuing basis, unless the Prescribed Company qualifies as an Exempt Prescribed Company (Exempt PC).

1.2 Exempt Prescribed Companies

A Prescribed Company may qualify as an Exempt Prescribed Company (Exempt PC) where it meets the exemption criteria set out in the DIFC Prescribed Company Regulations. Exempt PCs are not required to appoint a Corporate Service Provider under the Regulations, although they may choose to do so on a voluntary basis.

A Prescribed Company qualifies as an Exempt PC if it is controlled by any of the following:

- A "Registered Person": an entity registered in the DIFC, excluding VCCs, Foundations, Non-profit Incorporated Organisations (NPIOs), and other Prescribed Companies.
- An "Authorised Firm": a person authorised by the Dubai Financial Services Authority (DFSA), or licensed by a recognised financial services regulator, to carry on one or more regulated financial services (except operating a representative office).

- A "Government Entity": this includes:
  - the Federal Government of the UAE;
  - the Government of Dubai or any other UAE Emirate;
  - a government of a Recognised Jurisdiction;
  - an entity controlled by any of the above governments; or
  - an entity in which a UAE government entity (as listed above) holds, directly or indirectly, at least 25% ownership (or such other percentage as approved by the DIFCA).
- A Publicly Listed Entity: a body corporate with any class of its securities listed on a recognised securities exchange.

A Prescribed Company is considered to be "controlled" by a person if that person has the power to ensure that the Prescribed Company's affairs are run in accordance with the person's wishes, whether through holding shares or voting power (directly or indirectly) in the Prescribed Company or through powers given by the Prescribed Company's Articles of Association (or other governing document).

To view the list of Recognised Jurisdictions and Recognised Stock Exchanges, please refer to the Exempt Entitles section in Guidance on Exempt Entities under UBO Regulations.

1.3 Registered Address requirements

A Prescribed Company (PC) continued under the DIFC Prescribed Company Regulations is a passive holding entity. As such, it cannot maintain its own leased office premises or have employees.

A Prescribed Company must have a registered office in the DIFC and may satisfy this requirement in one of the following ways:

- Where a CSP is appointed, the PC may use the registered office address of its CSP as its registered address in the DIFC.
- The PC may share the registered office address of an affiliated entity that is registered in the DIFC, subject to the required consent and regulatory conditions.

For more details about Prescribed Companies and the detailed definitions of some of the terms used, please refer to the Prescribed Company Regulations.
